DAY 3: MADRID – CÓRDOBA – GRANADA

Breakfast. Check out and travel to the magnificent city of the Caliphate “Córdoba”. Start your Tour in Qurtuba with a stroll through the cobbled streets of this jewel city of the Middle Ages. Be spellbound by the Mezquita, the exquisite mosque started by Abdul Rahman I and expanded by his successors.

The Great Mosque -Aljama- of Córdoba as it is also known, built during the period of Moorish occupation, is the most splendid Islamic monument in the western world. Its construction commenced in 785, when Abd Rahman established Córdoba as capital of Al-Andalus; it was extended during successive periods by Abd Rahman II, Al-Hakam II and Almanzor.

Halal lunch. Prayer in Mosque of Avorroes and meeting with head of Muslim Community of Córdoba and Imam of Masjid Avorroes Ibn Rushd. Crossing the Roman bridge till the Calaà Hurra, the Islamic fortified gate in the historic centre. Free time for Souvenirs and shopping. Proceed to Granada -the City of Faith and Justice-. Halal Dinner and overnight in Granada.

DAY 4: GRANADA – ALHAMBRA

Breakfast. Also known as Ghamada, this magnificent kingdom produces astounding architecture and a rich tradition that still influences the lives of the people of present-day Andalusia.

Embark on a walking tour to unravel the Islamic heritage of this enchanting kingdom, its Arab baths, its guest houses, its markets. Finally, marvel at the architecture, the Alhambra, the red fortress built on top of a hill and the biggest attraction in Spain.

It is a fairy-tale fortress created by Muslim architects, engineers, artists and craftsmen who put their heart and soul, inspired by the Quran to build an exquisite abode, where the motto is "There is no Victorious but Allah".

Explore this incredible fortress with its Quranic scripts and Arabic poetry, crowning our visit by admiring the Jannat al-Arif, the garden of paradise, now called the Generalife. See how light, wind and water have been utilized to create a serene and relaxing bliss. After Maghreb prayers at the New Granada Mosque, explore the old city of Albaicin, where the medieval mystique atmosphere is still alive. Enjoying the Elvira Street Al-Qaisaria, founded by Yusuf I and called Yussufiya, as one of the famous Madrasa in Islamic Heritage of Al-Andalus. Free time for shopping at Serrallo Plaza. Halal dinner and overnight in Granada.

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

MADRID

SANTIAGO BERNABEU STADIUM

Home of the Real Madrid F.C. Some truly memorable football has been placed within the walls of Santiago Bernabeu Stadium. It is not used only for football matches, though this will always be its main use for major concerts.

CÓRDOBA

CALAHORRA

It is a fortified gate in the Historic centre of the city, of Islamic origin. It is also the inside of the building featuring a museum which is of particular interest.

CÓRDOBA MOSQUE

Converted into the Cathedral of Córdoba, the structure is regarded as one of the most accomplished monuments of Moorish architecture.

GRANADA

ALHAMBRA

It was so called because of its reddish walls (in Arabic, qa'at al Hamra'). It is located on top of the hill Al-Sabika, on the left bank of the river Darro, to the west of the city of Granada and the neighborhood of the Albaycin.

SEVILLA

GIRALDA

It is a bell tower of the Sevilla Cathedral, and was originally built as a minaret during the Muslim period. The Giralda was registered in 1987 as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. The tower is 104.1 m in height and remains one of the most important symbols of the city, as it has been since medieval times.

PLAZA DE ESPAÑA

The Plaza de España complex is a huge half-circle with buildings continually running around the edge accessible over the moat by numerous bridges, representing the four ancient kingdoms of Spain. In the centre is the Vicente Traver fountain. By the walls of the Plaza are many tiled alcoves, each representing a different province of Spain.

BARCELONA

CAMP NOU STADIUM

Home of F.C. Barcelona since 1957 (meaning New Camp), It's the largest stadium in Europe and the second largest association football stadium in the world in terms of capacity (99,354 seats). Camp Nou has been used for various purposes other than football, often hosting major concerts, congregations, rugby and etcetera.

GAUDÍ ROUTE

Antoni Gaudí, Spanish Catalan architect is the best known practitioner of Modernism, culminating in an organic style inspired by natural forms. Discover his masterpieces, the Sagrada Família Monument, along with La Pedrera and Casa Batlló buildings.
