TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

MADRID

SANTIAGO BERNABEU STADIUM

Home of the Real Madrid F.C. Some truly memorable football has been played within the walls of Santiago Bernabeu Stadium. It is not used only for football matches, though this will always be its main use for major concerts.

CÓRDOBA

CALAHORRA

It is a fortified gate in the Historic centre of the city, of Islamic origin. It is also the inside of the building featuring a museum which is of particular interest.

CÓRDOBA MOSQUE

Converted into the Cathedral of Córdoba, the structure is regarded as one of the most accomplished monuments of Moorish architecture.

SEVILLA

GIRALDA

It is a bell tower of the Sevilla Cathedral, and was originally built as a minaret during the Muslim period. The Giralda was registered in 1987 as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. The tower is 104.1 m in height.

PLAZA DE ESPAÑA

The complex is a huge half-circle with buildings continually running around the edge accessible over the moat by numerous bridges, representing the four ancient kingdoms of Spain.

GRANADA

ALHAMBRA

It was so called because of its reddish walls (in Arabic, qa'lat al Hamra). It is located on top of the hill Al-Sabika, on the left bank of the river Darro, to the west of the city of Granada and the neighbourhood of the Albaycin.

FES

QARAWIYYIN MOSQUE

Also known as Al-Qarawiyyin Mosque, was founded in 859. It is incredibly old and it has served as a home for the University of Al-Karaouine for centuries – giving cause for the Guinness Book of World Records to name the university as the “oldest existing educational institution in the world”.

CASABLANCA

MOSQUE HASSAN II

It is the largest mosque in Morocco and the 7th largest in the world. Its minaret is the world's tallest at 210 metres. The mosque stands on a promontory looking out to the Atlantic Ocean, the sea bed being visible through the glass floor of the building's hall.[4] The walls are of hand-crafted marble and the roof is retractable. A maximum of 105,000 worshippers can gather together for prayer: 25,000 inside the mosque hall and another 80,000 on the mosque's outside grounds.
